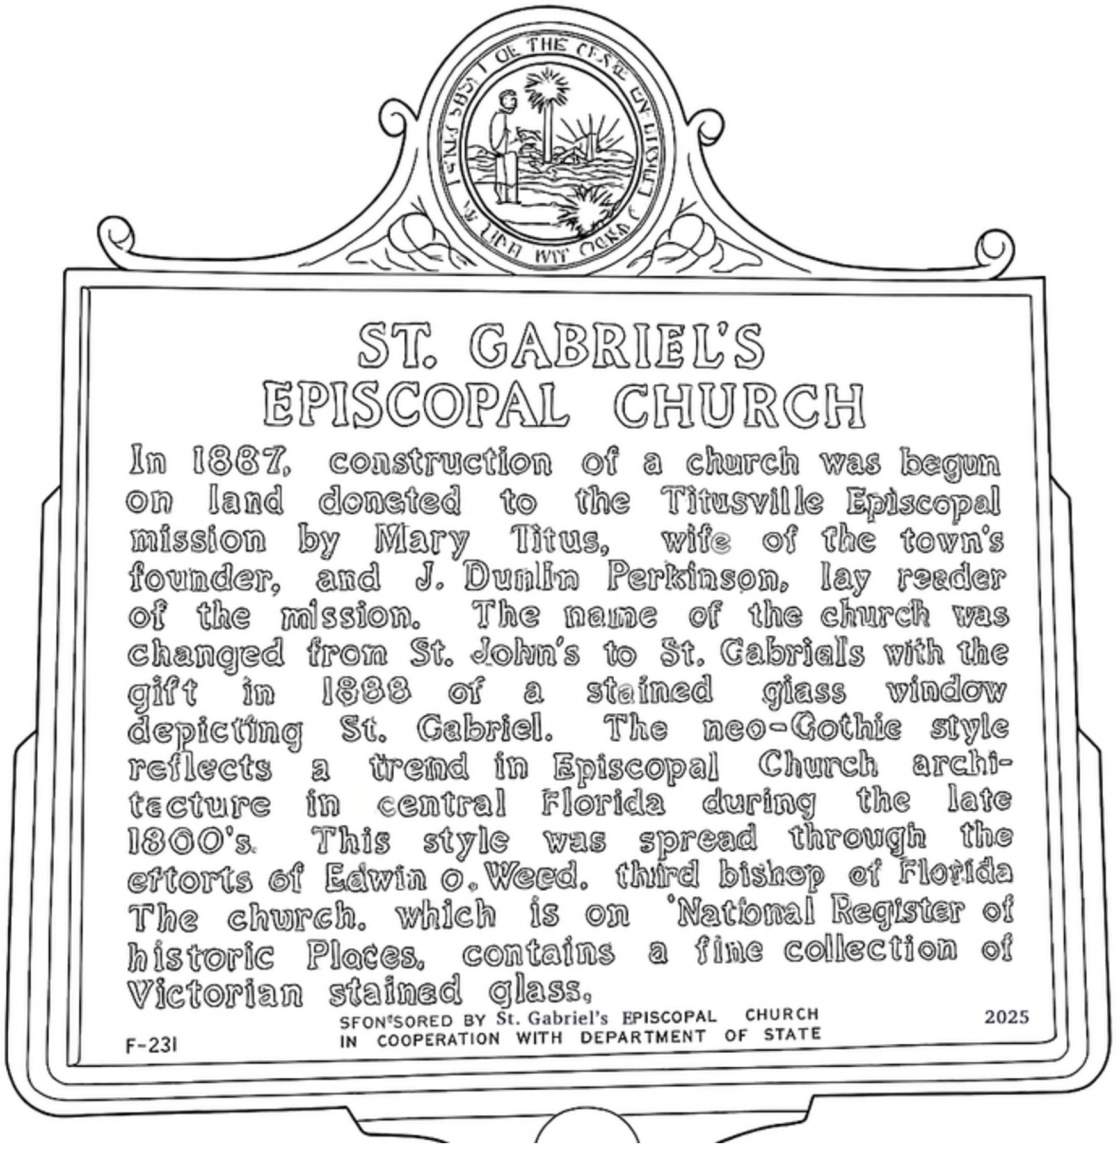
St. GABRIEL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH



ST. GABRIEL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

In 1887, construction of a church was begun on land donated to the Titusville Episcopal mission by Mary Titus, wife of the town's founder, and J. Dunlin Perkinson, lay reader of the mission. The name of the church was changed from St. John's to St. Gabriel's with the gift in 1888 of a stained glass window depicting St. Gabriel. The neo-Gothic style reflects a trend in Episcopal Church architecture in central Florida during the late 1800's. This style was spread through the efforts of Edwin O. Weed, third bishop of Florida. The church, which is on National Register of historic Places, contains a fine collection of Victorian stained glass.

Author's Notes on Scripture Selection

1. Not Just Literal

Some verses name what's pictured. Others name what's happening underneath-God's promise, God's presence, God's fulfillment.

2. A Single Thread

We wanted to show how the whole Bible, not just the Gospels, leads to Jesus. The kneelers don't separate Old and New-they stitch them together. So do the verses.

3. Unexpected on Purpose

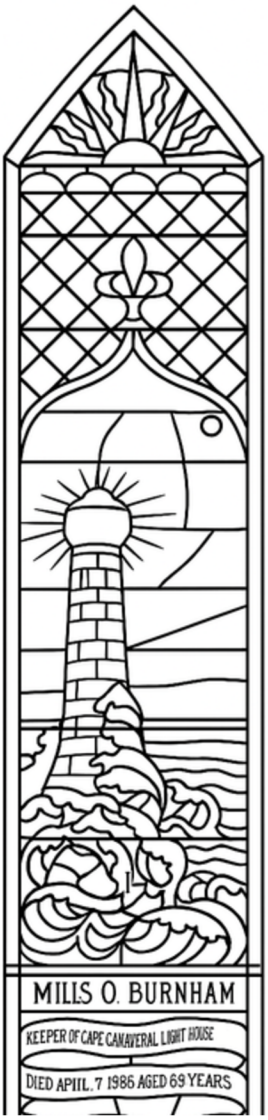
Sometimes we chose verses that surprise you. Not to be clever-but to prompt wonder. If it makes you pause and open a Bible, we've done our job.

4. Not Exhaustive

Each kneeler, window, and sermon tells a rich story with multiple layers. Each verse is just a starting point. There are many others that would be just as faithful, or perhaps- even a better fit. Which ones would you choose?

5. For Parents Too

These verses aren't only for the children coloring, they're for the adults nearby. For those quietly asking, "Where am I in this story?"



A Quiet Invitation

You don't need to know everything
You don't need to explain it all
Just walk beside them
Wonder with them
Worship together
Let the Spirit do the rest
